6 O'CLOCK EXTRA. FELLOWS ON TOP AGAIN.

Gov. Flower Will Not Appoint a Deputy Until the Charges Are Disposed Of.

SET BACK FOR THE SEVENTY.

Mr. Laroque Declares His Committee Will Keep Up the Fight.

BLAMES THE COMMITTEE OF FIVE.

But for "Good Government Interference," He Says, All Would Have Been Well.

Gov. Flower has found an excuse in the application to have District-Attorney Fellows removed from office for denying the request of the LXX to have the Attorney-General conduct the prosecution of election cases, and those in which the misconduct of public officials is involved.

The Governor's letter to the sub-committee of the LXX was received this morning and is as follows:

STATE OF NEW YORK,
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,
ALBANY, Nov. 23, 1894.
Messrs. Joseph Laroque, Horace Porter and Chas.
O. Beaman, Committee, New York.

Gentlemen: Your communication of yesterday's date, with inclosures, requesting me to require the Attorney-General, in person or by deputy, to attend a Court of Order and Term, to be held in the city of New York on the first Monday of December next for the purpose of managing and conducting certain elections and proceedings relating to crimes committed against the election laws and misconduct of public officials, in which request the District-Attorney concurs, is received.

Yesterday charges were preferred against District-Attorney Fellows by citizens of New York, which I have sent him, and asked him to answer within eight days. Until these charges are tried and disposed of, I prefer not to take any definite action with regard to the subject of your letter. Very respectfully yours, JOS. F. FLOWER.

When Attorney Laroque handed a copy of the above letter to an "Evening World" reporter he said:
"Now, you see the ill-advised action of these five young men has delayed, if not prevented, a course of action that all good citizens are clamoring for."

Continuing, he stated that the Committee of which he is chairman, had not yet by any means abandoned the effort to have the Governor instruct the Attorney-General to name a deputy to conduct the cases referred to.

"Last evening," he said, "Gen. Porter, Mr. Beaman and myself sent a supplementary letter to Gov. Flower, suggesting that the charges against Fellows make it additionally imperative that the Attorney-General conduct these important election cases, inasmuch as the District-Attorney will be kept busy defending himself."

"The Governor had evidently not received that letter when he wrote his reply to us, and it is just possible that he may change his mind after reading it."

"In any event, we will continue insisting that the Attorney-General be directed to act, for it is important that these cases be pushed immediately. They should be conducted by some one in whom the public has confidence."

"What, then, will be your next step?" Mr. Laroque was asked.

"No plan has been outlined," he replied.

"Will the committee of which you are chairman wait upon the Governor in Albany?"

"It is impossible to say at present."

"Is there any possibility that you may unite with the five Good Government Club men in asking for the removal of Fellows in the hope that some more vigorous prosecutor may be placed in the District-Attorney's office?"

"What profit would there be in that?" was Mr. Laroque's question in reply.

"There is no reason why Mr. Fellows should be removed this month or this year. An investigation into the affairs of his office can be delayed, but these election cases should be pushed to trial during December."

"Besides, if Fellows should be removed on the charges made by these five men, the Governor's appointee as his successor might command no more confidence than the present incumbent.
It is necessary, you know, that a prosecutor should have the confidence of the public."

When Fulton McMahon, one of the Good Government Club men, who have brought charges against Fellows, was told of the Governor's reply to the LXX, and of Mr. Laroque's criticism, he said that as he had been accused of no crime he could not see why he should be called upon to make a defense.

"It has been suggested," he was told, that if these charges you have made were brought in the interests of good government rather than to embarrass the Committee of Seventy you should now temporarily withdraw the charges."

"I cannot speak for the 'Five,' as

WHAT WE MAY BE COMING TO.

AN "EVENING WORLD" ARTIST'S IDEA OF A FUTURE SUNDAY PARADE ON FIFTH AVENUE, SUGGESTED BY THE STORY OF THE TRAMP WHO LODGED IN MRS. ASTOR'S HOUSE.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Mrs. Foglia Slain and Her Husband Instantly Disappeared.

He Buys a New Overcoat and Has Plenty of Money for Escape.

Three Men Arrested by the Police as a Precautionary Step.

The police of the One Hundredth street station, this morning arrested Louis Barbaro, Ludwig Zosa and Charles Delianus, charged with knowledge of the alleged murder of Mrs.
Primativa Foglia, at 592 Columbus avenue, first published exclusively in "The Evening World" of yesterday.

The precinct has six men on the case, and Headquarters two more, to prevent the culprits from escaping justice.

They are hot on the track of the husband, Bernardi Foglia, and a companion with whom he was last seen.

Few of the elements of mystery that surround the case have been cleared, but the conviction has become almost positive that the woman did not kill herself, but was murdered, and that the murderer is the principal in the tragedy, but aided by accessories.

It has been learned that after his wife's death, Foglia bought an overcoat, and was seen in company with Martin Barbaro, of 21 South Fifth avenue, last evening, lounging about the streets.

Foglia, at that time, showed $70 in cash that he carried in his pockets.

The dead girl, who was but nineteen years old, was married to Foglia by Johann "Boyer" Flynn, in the City Hall twenty months ago.

Employed in Costa Bros. restaurant, 538 Columbus avenue, Primativa's husband was a piano-maker, living at 133 South Fifth avenue.

The young couple lived in comfortable circumstances. The two children they had died at birth. Recently the neighbors said that Foglia had grown increasingly jealous of his wife, and had frequent bursts of temper.

DIAGRAM OF THE FLAT.

Being young and active and having an uncommonly pretty home for their class, and buying the best of groceries and wines, they were much loved by their neighbors, with whom they had few dealings.

The woman died Monday night, in all probability, the baker Wednesday morning found at the door the breast of a dead woman.

She lay fully dressed upon a sofa or divan. She was stretched out, her head rested against the wall. A ball-hole was in the right temple. A revolver lay near her side.

There were streams of blood on her face from one ear to the other, blood upon her dress and pools of blood upon the floor near her feet.

The woman died at once. The instantaneous death resulted. The first police the important question—whether the husband was the murderer.

The cupboard was well stocked, and it was evident that no living thing had been in that flat since Sunday night except a large green parrot, nearly starved. It was in a cage close to the

GOLD FOR THE BONDS.

At Least 20 Per Cent. to Be Furnished by Banks.

Most of the Issue Will Be Placed in New York.

Bullion Dealers Say There is No Call for Yellow Metal.

Very little definite information was to be obtained this morning relative to the bond question, further than was known last night.

Nearly all the firms named as being in the syndicate headed by the United States Trust Company, will send in individual bids for bonds, in addition to the syndicate bid. A majority of the large down-town banks will also send in individual subscriptions.

The question of getting the gold with which to pay for the bonds is apparently pretty well settled, the banks having signified their willingness to part with a sufficient amount of their holdings to permit of the first payment of 20 per cent. of the entire amount required for the total issue of $50,000,000.

So far but little has been heard of any cities outside of New York subscribing for any portion of the issue.
Boston and Chicago may take a few hundred thousand of the bonds, but they are not counted upon.

They will be sent from Philadelphia this morning says:

In this city the subscriptions to the new United States bonds are now expected to be at least $5,000,000. There is naturally a good demand for the bonds, and the price is making good progress. It is made that much more gold will probably be provided for than will be needed when the subscription closes. The gold in this city is being expended all requirements by export and none is being withdrawn from the sub-treasury.

It was stated at the sub-treasury this morning that the terms of the circular calling for bids will be strictly adhered to, and that all bids, to receive any notice must be submitted by noon to-morrow.

The agencies of the Canadian banks today received $200,000 additional gold for the purpose of buying the new bonds.

Bullion dealers say there is no demand for gold to-day.

President William of the Chemical Bank, said to-day: "The Chemical Bank is in no syndicate or agreement with any other bank in the matter of the bonds. We will furnish to depositors, who may be successful bidders, the gold they may require to pay for bonds. We will not get it from the sub-treasury.
We believe the banks generally intend to act liberally in this matter."

There have been a number of calculations published as to the prices at which bids should be made on the new 5 per cent. Government bonds in order to realize a certain interest on the investment. The following prices are calculated by experts and include interest accrued to Nov. 24:

Basis.	Price.
2 1/2 per cent.	117.63.
2 3/4 per cent.	117.63.
2 5/8 per cent.	117.63.
3 per cent.	118.021.

GOLD WITHDRAWN TO-DAY.

Southern National Bank Takes $200,000 From Sub-Treasury.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The only gold withdrawal so far announced, from the New York Sub-Treasury, was $200,- 000 by the Southern National Bank.

The Treasury cash balance to-day is $100, 555,584 and gold reserve, $53,994,076, excluding $250,000 withdrawn yesterday and to-day.

THE CINCINNATI INQUIRY.

Dillingham's Desire to Cross-Question Cleared the Court.

Capt. F. M. Bunce and the rest of the naval officers who compose the Court of Inquiry investigating the accident to the new cruiser Cincinnati, which struck a submerged rock off Cape Cod, to-day week ago, reconvened at the Brooklyn Navy-Yard to-day.

So far the testimony of Capt. Glass and other officers of the cruiser show that one was responsible for the accident.

The first witness to-day was the pilot, Benjamin F. Armstrong, who testified that instead of Capt. Glass giving him the order to back, he gave him the order to pass through the straits. He had been told by his orders for steering along to the navigator and the officer of the deck.

Navigator Dillingham asked the privilege to cross-question the witness.
The Judge Advocate, Lloyd, Bears, objected, saying that the matter was settled by ordering the court-room cleared until the matter was decided.

GEORGE LORD DAY BETTER.

He Passed a Comfortable Night and Is Improving.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Nov. 23.—George Lord Day, who was seriously injured in a cross-country run on Tuesday, and is now lying at the Meadow Brook Club near this place, was reported today to be better.

He passed a comfortable night and was resting quietly at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

SERG. DUNN A STAR WITNESS.

In His Evidence the Wind Blamed for the Monroe Street Calamity.

The inquiry, as to the disaster in Oct.
10, at 72 Monroe street, was begun this morning before Coroner Shea. The building was in course of erection and a storm was blowing at the time. The walls, about five stories high, fell on the roof of 72. The accident happened at 4 A. M., and ten persons were killed.

A number of witnesses were examined among them the proprietor, Louis Arnold, who testified that the building was being put up properly. The contractors were John O'Brien and John J. O'Brien.

Weather Prophet Dunn was the star witness. He said that at the time of the accident, the wind was blowing sixty miles an hour, and when the storm passed over New York City, it was blowing a regular West Indian cyclone. In his opinion, no wall of that class could withstand the pressure of the wind blowing at sixty miles an hour.

The Coroner charged the jury that the accident was due to the storm. The jury returned a verdict that Bertha Arnold came to her death from fracture of the skull and other injuries received from the fall of the building, 72 Monroe street, on Oct. 10, during a severe storm of wind and rain, and found that the accident was due to the storm. They exonerated from blame all persons connected with the building.

Lexov Witnesses on Trial.

Edward Feiner, Julia Burns, Frederick Stale and Anna Stale, the latter two having been witnesses at the police before the Lexov Committee, were placed on trial to-day before Judge Cowing, in the Court of General Sessions, on a charge of obscenity. The case was set for trial on the night of Aug. 3 he was indicted on a charge of obscenity, and was given a $500 bond for trial on the night of Aug. 3.

Bowie Safe in Port.

The White Star line steamer Bowie, Capt. Thompson, which left Liverpool on Nov. 3 for this port, and which was reported in being there the morning passed in at Sandy Hook at 1 o'clock this morning, and was given a salute by the gunboats of the fleet. The ship passed through the straits of the harbor recently by nearly all incoming steamers.

Only Thirteen and a Stabber.

Frank Rogers, thirteen years old, of 28 West Twenty-sixth street, was held for trial at Jefferson Court to-day on a charge of felonious assault. In a quarrel with an eleven-year-old playmate named Johnny Anderson, he stabbed him with a pen-knife.

COL. FELLOWS—"Go it, gentlemen! The harder you fight the safer I am!"

It is Claimed the Health Board Staff is Too Small.

There was a sprinkling of ladies present at this afternoon's session of the Tenement-House Commission in the old Criminal Court Building. Miss Louisa Schuyler, the philanthropist, and her sister, Miss Georgiana Schuyler, and several others occupied seats in the jury box and paid close attention to the proceedings.

SANITARY LAWS UNHEEDED.

Under the Whip We Capture the First Race from Runyon.

Second Event Goes to Jack the Jew After a Long Delay.

Nineteen Bookmakers Doing Business at St. Asaph Track.

(Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 23.— It rained early this morning, but at noon the sun came out and the weather was warm and pleasant. The track was fairly good, while the scratches were very few. The attendance was large and nineteen bookmakers were doing business.

Eleven horses, too large a field for this track, started in the opening race.
Economist was selected as favorite, and was well backed at two. As the other horses received good support, however, his odds receded a point. Runyon was well backed at the end and closed a slight favorite over Economist.

The choices finished one, two, with Economist in the van by a length. He could not get in full swing the first part of the race, but closed strong at the end and beat Runyon out. Gov. Fifer finished third.

Gov. Fifer went to the front to a straggling start and showed the way until well into the stretch by open daylight. Economist, who had been running in the rack, then moved up, and running strong under the whip, passed the post a winner by a length from Runyon, who beat Gov. Fifer out by three parts of a length for the place.
Time—1:23.4.
